Community invited to speak on immigration issues

Governor's Commission on Immigration to hold public hearing in Norfolk

Norfolk – Area residents are invited to present comments to the Governor's Commission on Immigration at its next public hearing, scheduled for Wednesday, July 16 from 5:30 – 8:30 p.m. in the Brickhouse Auditorium located on the 2nd floor of the Raleigh Building at Sentara Norfolk General Hospital, 600 Gresham Drive. The Commission is seeking public input on how immigration issues are affecting Virginia.

The public is encouraged to comment on immigration issues specifically related to the Hampton Roads area, as the Commission will conduct additional hearings in other regions of Virginia. The Norfolk public hearing is the only one scheduled for the area. Other hearings will be held in Harrisonburg and Richmond and have already been held in Fairfax and Roanoke.

Public comment will be limited to three minutes per person. Sign up for public comment will begin onsite at 5:00 p.m. Written comments can also be submitted in advance for Commission review prior to the meeting via email at immigration.commission@governor.virginia.gov, or by mail to:
